Shantung Agreement.

PARIS, May 1.—The Chinese delegates to the peace conference had requested the council of three to give an official statement on the Kiao-Chau agreement.

While not concealing their disappointment over the published unofficial version of the agreement, the Chinese without comment pending explanation of the terms.

PEKING, Wednesday, April 26.—Both houses of the Chinese parliament passed a resolution today protesting through the foreign office to the delegates of the five great powers at Paris, against the transfer of the control of Kiao-Chau to Japan. Both houses request that Kiao-Chau be restored direct to China without condition. They also ask that concessions in connection with the Kiao-Chau railway which were exacted from the Chinese government by Germany and protocols of agreement relative to the Kiam and Tsing-Chow and other extensions of the Kiao-Chau railway be cancelled.

By The Associated Press.
PARIS, Wednesday, April 26.—All German rights at Kiao-Chau and in Shantung province are to be transferred without reserve to Japan, according to an agreement reached by the council of three. Japan voluntarily engages to hand back Shantung province in full sovereignty to China, retaining only the economic privileges granted Germany and the right to establish a settlement at Teling Tao, south of Kiao-Chau.

The American delegation to the peace conference regards this agreement as the best possible solution of the far-eastern problem to be obtained without risking a break similar to that which resulted in the Italian delegation leaving Paris. Confidence is felt that the league of nations which will have control over the future relations between Japan and China, and which will guarantee the future territorial integrity and independence of China, will be sufficiently strong to safeguard Chinese interests and insure the return of all China's rights in the Shantung province.

The Japanese delegates are pleased over the transfer of German rights and property on the mainland and say the agreement virtually carries into effect the provisions of the China-Japanese treaties of May 15, 1915. The Chinese withhold any statement pending the actual wording of the agreement to be included in the peace treaty.

The owners of the railway out of Kiao-Chau will use special police only to insure the security of traffic. This force will be composed of Chinese with such Japanese instructors as the directors of the railway shall select and who are appointed by the Chinese government. All Japanese military forces are to be withdrawn at the earliest possible moment.

BOLSHEVIKI CLAIM BIG GAIN IN EAST

Russian Wireless Reports Assert
Advances Are Made Against Forces of Kolchak in Siberia.

LONDON, May 1.—Along the Amur railway the bolshevik troops under allied pressure have withdrawn to new positions in miles west of Petrovsk on western bank of Lake Unga.

A Russian wireless message reporting the withdrawal says that the bolsheviks have carried an advance on the front south of Archangel and that on the eastern front the Siberians have been driven back 20 miles in the region of Orenburg.

Concerning the decision on the Archaugel front, the Russian statement claims that the reds advanced on the left bank of the Deuna to the mouth of the River Shuvega, east of the Vaga. A further advance hindered by spring floods.

In the Orenburg region the bolshevik claim to have crossed the River Derna and to have advanced to a line 35 miles northeast of Ruzhik (between Orenburg and Samara) and to have advanced fighting in the region of Bugurulan (east of Samara).

On the other hand, the bolshevik were forced to retire six to ten miles north of the Elabuga-Uralspolk railway (in the region east of Masan).

Another Russian wireless official says that along the Salaysk river northwest of Orenburg the reds obtained a complete victory over Admiral Kolchak's fourth army corps, wiping out eight regiments and capturing more than 1,500 prisoners.

MAY DAY IS OBSERVED THROUGHOUT ARGENTINA

BUENOS AIRES, May 1.—May day was celebrated by a general 24-hour strike all over the republic. In this city the stoppage of business was complete and included tram-cars, taxi-cabs, coaches, hotels, restaurants, and all food purveyors. Many theaters closed and no newspapers were published.

Labor mass meetings were held in various parts of the city during the day. Because of alarming rumors, military and naval forces were on guard throughout the republic.

CLOCK SPRING HURLS BIG NEEDLE IN BABY'S CHEEK

MALDEN, Mass., May 1.—An offensive looking alarm clock came near causing serious results to one member of the family of Fred Holt. Mr. Holt was repairing the clock with a darned needle. Nearby was his nineteen-month-old son asleep on a couch. The spring of the clock slipped with such force that it threw the darned needle against the sleeping child's face, imbedding it lengthwise in the left cheek. It was necessary for a physician to open the cheek sufficiently to reach the end of the needle, cut off the hooked end and then draw it out.

DEAR FOLKS:

WHEN you work hard and conscientiously to achieve a result and you feel down deep that you have succeeded—don't you like it very, VERY much when somebody comes along that you know is an expert and he tells you that your work is splendid and he congratulates you?

Is it not just human for all of us to like to hear praise of our work?

Well, I saw a very happy group of workers assembled in the CANNED GOODS DEPARTMENT of the Wilson & Co. plant, Chicago, on Friday, March 14th.

I call your attention to the fact that Friday with its SIX LETTERS carries with it good luck so far as the Wilson & Co. organization is concerned. It fits the Cycle of six, which is such a dominant factor in the business and brings so much happiness and success.

In the group of workers was Thomas E. Wilson, President of Wilson & Co., who is as intense and as enthusiastic as any of the 25,000 workers in his organization. Here were also in the group three Vice-presidents of the company. I mention this to prove what I have been telling you, that the Wilson & Co. organization represents DEMOCRACY OF WORK, which starts with the head and goes all through the ranks. One man is as good as another in this organization; one woman is as good as another; and both men and women are on a basis of equality in the matter of recognition and reward for service well rendered.

Now I will tell you why they were so happy:

ALFRED W. McCANN, THE FAMOUS PURE FOOD EXPERT, JUST FINISHED TASTING AND TESTING THE WILSON & CO. CERTIFIED BRANDS OF CANNED MEATS, VEGETABLES AND FRUITS, AND THEN SAID:

"I TAKE OFF MY HAT TO THESE PURE FOOD PRODUCTS. YOU HAVE PRODUCED A VERY FINE AND A VERY WONDERFUL LINE, AND I CONGRATULATE YOU."

Wouldn't it make you happy if you, like the Wilson & Co. workers, were able to produce perfect food products and felt sure that you had succeeded, to have Mr. McCann—a man who knows what pure food is—tell you that you had achieved a wonderful result?

You bet it would.

Well, the Wilson & Co. workers are the same kind of human beings as you are—so they were made very happy when Mr. McCann, who had selected at random from the immense stocks of canned goods—cans of corn, peas, beans, asparagus, meats, preserves, etc.—and had them opened up and then tasted and tested them—gave them his splendid endorsement.

I know Mr. McCann personally and intimately. He is an honest, fearless, able man. Nobody on earth has ever yet been able to control his opinion or his pen. Both are owned by himself and by nobody else.

I know he meant what he said when he told those workers that their certified foods are O. K. in all particulars, and I know also that if he had not thought they were O. K. in all particulars, the tender of a million dollars cash on the spot would not have made him indorse them.

Mr. McCann could have been rich by now had he wished to barter his honor—but he has kept himself clean and straight—AND POOR, as most men do who are intent and intense in doing things to help and protect humanity.

I did not know that Mr. McCann was in Chicago until he walked into the Wilson & Co. restaurant, which, by the way, is a big, democratic affair where officials and workers dine together in the same way that members of a family meet at their own dining room tables.

He told me he had come to Chicago to investigate the Wilson & Co. business because his interest had been aroused by reading these letters that I am writing to you. At the end of the day he was good enough to say that he found everything exactly as I have described it to you—that is to say, that there is Heart, Honor, and the Square Deal all throughout the Wilson & Co. organization.

Mr. McCann and I once spoke from the same platform at Sagamore Beach, Mass., whose intense people gather and discuss the big problems of the day. I will never forget the great ovation Mr. McCann received on that occasion. He is a very dramatic and very intense speaker. He had carefully prepared a speech, but after its delivery the large audience insisted on his continuing to talk. He was tired, but he kept on talking. He was tired, but he kept on talking. He was tired, but he kept on talking.

His work has always been very strenuous and honest. HE HAS CONTRIBUTED FREEDOM TO THE HIGH STANDARDS THAT NOW PREVAIL IN THE MANUFACTURE OF PURE FOODS.

When he returned from Chicago he wrote some wonderful articles about his visit to the Wilson & Co. plant which were printed in the New York Evening Globe. He knows, and so do I, and I think you are beginning to know, that the slogan used by Wilson & Co.—"THE WILSON LABEL PROTECTS YOUR TABLE"—means what it says.

Sincerely, WILLIAM C. FREEMAN, 250 Fifth Avenue, New York City.—Adv.

"SWEETS to the Sweet" is an old-fashioned tribute we shall always hold dear. The gallant of today is practicing it as did the beaux of yesteryear. But today he takes pains to see that the "sweets" are the very choicest his money can buy. He buys his chocolates by name. Catharine Chocolates are his choice because everyone likes these variety tidbits, knowing they will not find a "plain" cream in the box. Next time try this kind.
